

Kimberly Hitt

Biography

My name is Kimberly Hitt. I was born and raised in the Golden state of California who has recently relocated to the Lonestar state of good old Texas. I have three beautiful children: Damien (18), Eric (17) and Anabella (9). I love being a mom. We love spending quality time outdoors, exploring God's creation. I learn from them lessons that leave me in awe most days. As a family, we have overcome many obstacles and are committed to encouraging other broken families with our testimony of God's ability to turn broken pieces into a beautiful mosaic.

I came to the Lord in 2010 after a long road of addiction and sin. Upon surrendering, The Lord showed me that my desire for music had been planted in me for a purpose. That purpose is worship. I love absolutely everything to do with worship. From writing songs, to set lists, to building and recruiting band mates, I love it all.

I have a great passion for diversifying worship in our churches. I had a God sent opportunity to serve under Pastor Brian Warth of Chapel of Change Christian Fellowship as one of their worship leaders. Pastor Brian exemplifies diversity in ways that is so refreshing. He taught me that God loves it when different cultural, economic, and racial backgrounds come together and praise Him and so do I. I felt led in 2019 to release an album called "Outside the Box" which has ministered to many different backgrounds. When asked why I chose that title I said, "Because too many times we segregate Christian music into genres the way the world does. We need to learn to think outside the box when it comes to our worship experience as a body." I stand by that today and it is my Mission purpose for worship.

I just recently had the privilege to attend Asbury Theological Seminary for their "Worship and Songwriting" course. I learned so much about worship and had the honor to write with some amazing people and I earnestly look forward to diving deeper into my education as it pertains to worship and theology.

My goals in the foreseeable future are to build up the bride in psalm in ways that ignite a fire that burns for generations to come.

"I will praise you, Lord, among the nations; I will sing of you among the peoples."

Psalm 57:9
